RUNNERS COULD WIN THE NEW MITSUBISHI ASX SUV

- Entries open today -

Today, runners registered for the 40th annual The Sun-Herald City2Surf presented by Westpac have a new reason to up their fundraising efforts with the announcement that any individual who raises more than $200 for charity in this year's run can enter to win a new Mitsubishi ASX city-sized SUV.

Keys to the brand new vehicle, which has not yet been released by Mitsubishi in Australia, will be handed to the lucky winner after selection on the Sunday after the City2Surf, August 15.

Between now and then, any City2Surf registered runner can enter the competition once they reach or exceed $200 in fundraising for their chosen charity.

Entries are open today and can be submitted online at www.city2surf.com.au.

Another major fundraising incentive comes from The Sun-Herald's commitment to contribute two $10,000 lump sum donations to the charities of the highest individual fundraiser and the highest team fundraiser registered for this year's race.

The City2Surf Charity Challenge aims to raise more than $3 million for Australian charities. The Sun-Herald, on behalf of all competitors, urges Australians to dig deep and support their friends and family who are running in the 40th City2Surf this year.
